

Please don't allow this to pass. I hate to think of an emergency situation where I or another ham could not get in contact with whatever authority they needed to and it caused loss of life. Thanks for looking into this.